HANDICAP WEIGHTS THURSDAY

Great Sysonby Will Not Run in Early Races-Gans to Fight Britt or Nelson-Bowling Averages.

A special dispatcht to the New York Herald from Mexico City, via Galveston, Tex., dated last night, says; "Willie" Smith, winner of the open American golf championship in 1899, yesterday won the Mexican goif championship with a brilliant score of 289 for seventy-two holes. Smith, with 144, led the field at the end of the first day and today he maintained his form by finishing the third and fourth rounds in 145.

"Willie" Anderson, the American champion, proved what a consistently high-class player he is by finishing second with 301. "Alec" Herd, the British champion for 1902, and one of the "big four," as the great British quartet are called, was third with 312. Andrew Kirkaldy, a famous St. Andrew's professional, and "Jack" White, the British champion in 1904, tied for eighth and ninth places with 319 each, while Rowland Jones, the other British celebrity, was thirteenth with 323. The scores were:
"Willie" Smith, 289; "Willie" Anderson,
301; "Alec" Herd, 312; Bernard Nicholis, 301; "Alec" Herd, 312; Bernard Nicholis, 313; Robert Everets, 318; "Alec" Campbell, 318; Robert Simpson, 318; Andrew Kirkaldy, 319; "Jack" White, 319; "Alec" Smith, 321; Percy Barrett, 321; Gilbert Nicholis, 321; Rowland Jones, 323; "Fred" McLeod, 332; George Low, 333; Mr. A. ARE DUE ON THURSDAY.

With the most remarkable winter experienced in many years now half over, interest begins to revive concerning Mr. Vosburgh's allotment of weights for the great handicaps, the first of which will be published on Thursday. The Brighton handicap will be first to appear for public inspection. Weights for the Brooklyn and Suburban will be given out on February 1.

With so much racing in the south and west there is not the same deep interest in the weights for the big handicaps that there was when ante-post speculation was a craze. The racing public desire quick action for their money, and when winter racing in New Jersey came into strong Schreiber is about $10,000 ahead of his next vogue it marked the gradual extinction of ante-post betting.

That an owner could sometimes win a great sum of money by backing his horse for the Suburban was realized when the recently deceased Troubadour captured the race for the late Capt. S. S. Brown In 1886, but such a coup would be impossible these days. There is no ante-post betting. largely because there is none to back the different horses and thus aid the layers to make "round" books.

There is no question, however, that ante-post betting did much to popularize the big handicap, as the various phases of the shifting odds due to the working of owners' commissioners was followed by spe and perhaps a run on the horses backed.

But times have changed, not only in this country, but in England, where there is really very little betting on even the Two Thousand Guineas and Derby prior to the last week preceding the actual running. Then after a candidate has made his appearance in some of the fixtures which are run in the second month of the season there his admirers no doubt would like to back him for one of the classics, but often find it impossible at any sort of fair odds for the simple reason that there has

of the turf that there is no longer that feverish and unhealthy activity connected with discussions of a horse's chances. In the old days of the turf there were not a few tragedles attributed, rightly or wrong-ly, to severe losses sustained by those un-fortunates, who could not keep within reasonable bounds, and who, though they may have paid when they lost, even though It took their last shilling, thereafter drop-ped out of their old circles, sometimes out of the world altogether, and the turf was blamed for it.

Hence it is that the appearance of the weights for the great handicaps, while always invested with a certain amount of interest, is no longer the occasion for lent assaults upon the equanimity of the racing world, and that as a rule, after the weights are once published, little more at-tention is paid to them until the varying vicissitudes of the racing season add to or detract from some fancied candidate's chances.

SYSONBY WILL NOT

BE IN EARLY RACES.

NEW YORK, January 22.-Sysonby, the champion race horse of last season, will not be placed in training as early this year as he was last. The reason is that he will not be asked to race early in the spring and that his first important engagement will probably be the Brooklyn handi-

Last spring Sysonby began with the Metropolitan. He was then a three-year-old, and the weight he had to carry was comparatively light for a horse of his speed. Although he was pounds the best horse in GANS MAY FIGHT the race, he only succeeded in making a dead heat of the race, dividing honors with Race King. His poor showing was due mainly to Shaw's poor riding and partially to lack of physical condition.

suit by his criticism of Shaw's jockeyship on that occasion. But this is not all that has caused Mr. Keene to map out a late campaign for Sysonby. Aware that his champion's fu-ture may be injured by too hurried training methods, he has decided not to start him until well into the season-not much before the Brooklyn or Sheepshead Bay meetings.
The colt has wintered exceptionally well and taken on considerable flesh. Reports from the stable say that he is now in much more robust health than at any period of

AN INTERESTING SUIT

OVER A RACE HORSE

Special Cablegram to The Star.

CALCUTTA, January 22.-A law case having much interest for racing people at headquarters has just commenced in the courts of Calcutta, the plaintiff being Mr. Spooner Hart, the well-known owner of race horses, and the defendant Mr. Grosser, also an owner of race horses. There was also a counter claim in which the position of the parties were reversed Mr. Hart is claiming the sum of $3,000, being the balance due from the defendant on account of stabling, medical treatment, traveling expenses, entrance fees, etc., which Mr. Hart had paid on account of Mr. Grosser, who asked him to enter his horse for races. One of the items in dispute was the price of a certain race horse, named Basini, which Mr. Grosser had bought from Mr. Hart for $6,500 on August 2 last. Mr. Grosser's defense was that this borse turned out to be unsound, and that, therefore, he was not liable to pay for it or the charges incurred in respect of it. On the other hand, it was argued he was entitled to return the horse, and claimed damages for breach of warranty, and wishes to set it off against the contention between the parties in this suit. The case is still proceeding.

MINOR RACING CIRCUIT.

Not Known When the Schedule of Dates Will Be Ready.

Special Dispatch to The Star. NEW YORK, January 22 .- Probably the schedule for the minor racing circuit, that is, the circuit which is to be made up of the tracks at Pimlico, Narahansett Park, Salem, Albany, Buffalo and Montreal, may not be made up until some time after perts was the occasion of great rejoicing dates for big meetings are announced. Some of these minor tracks are finished; others are building. The jockey club will probably be governed, when the time comes to arrange the minor schedule, by the readiness of the different plants of business.

The work at Salem is said to be backthe City of Mexico to see the finest golf man ever looked at either in Scotland, England, Ireland or elsewhere."

"Jack" White said: "'Willie's' work is a record over a standard eighteen-hole course, in the battle of Bunker Hill. Maybe they will, if they have luck.
Little has been heard recently of Cul.

Holland's venture at Albany, but it must be borne in mind that Mr. Holland and his friends do not have to build a new track. They control and own a fairly good one already. Holland himself conducted never seen any work to equal that of Smith a meeting at Albany twenty odd years in this match."

The new Montreal Jockey Club probably any man living could have beaten Smith in the match just played. It was really perfect golf."

will not be a factor in spring or summer racing next season. Sir Montagu Allen, James Carruthers and their friends in The result of the championship also dethings as swiftly as they can, but building a race track in Canada in the winter time is strenuous work. If they are ready at Montreal for first-class racing by the first of next September they will be doing extremely well.

Look Out for Ort Wells. Special Dispatch to The Star.

NEW YORK, January 22.-Enoch Wishard, the trainer of John A. Drake's horses, says Ort Wells may be the horse to dispute Sysonby's chances in the big handicaps this year. Wishard recently paid a visit to the horse infirmary up in Connecticut where the King Eric five-year-old is wintering, and was greatly encouraged at his condition. "Ort Wells has been fired for the splint behind, which bothered him last season and in the fall of 1904," says the noted trainer, "and his legs are says the noted trainer, "and his legs are of pins. In the individual averages Field not train again and win some of the big stakes I shall be greatly in error. When 1.178. McLennan is second, with 173.8. fit and well no horse can put it over him."

CINCINNATI, Ohio, January 22.-Harry Steinfeldt, the great third baseman, a member of the Chicago Nationals, is seriously considering a proposition to retire from the game and accept an offer from relatives in Texas to engage in mercantile pursuits. #### LACROSSE AT CORNELL

Practice for the Season's Matches Has Begun. Special Dispatch to The Star.

ITHACA, N. Y., January 22.-Practice for lacrosse has been begun at Cornell University. During the first month or so the men will be drilled in stick work and open practice. Then they will be taken out on Percy field, where the game will be played in earnest. Lacrosse, although it has not gained the popularity among the student body that foot ball and base ball enjoy, requires great skill and endurance. Candidates for the team must therefore go through the mill of strict discipline. The outlook for a strong team, the Cornell followers of the game think, is good. Ten men of last year's 'varsity squad are the freshmen class. The three men from last year's team lost through graduation are Reitze, cover point; Eveland, third attack, and Capt. Hunter, who played inside attack. H. Atwater, 1906, has consented to act as coach, which is considered an additional advantage.

Although the schedule of meets has not been completed, it is known that the first out-of-town trip taken by the Cornell team will include games with Lehigh, at South Bethlehem, on April 20; with Johns Hopkins the following day at Baltimore, and with Swarthmore. Other colleges which Cornell will play at later dates are Hobart, Buffalo, Harvard and Stevens Institute.

Lajoie Has Twenty-Seven Players. CLEVELAND, Ohio, January 22 .- The final rallying order to all the old Naps and new Naps has just been sent out from the headquarters of the Cleveland club, and when King Lajole's pitchers and catchers come over to Atlanta from Hot Springs there will be twenty-seven men-enough for three full nines-in gray uniforms. # SCHAEFER IN HIS OLD FORM.

Will Probably Be the Favorite in International Tourney.

special Dispatch to The Star. CHICAGO, January 22.-Jacob Schaefer s playing in all his old-time form. He is meeting all comers in all kinds of table games at his academy and holding his own. besides giving special attention to balk line

Interest in the national amateur billiard tournament, to be held at the Chicago Athletic Association in March, has been aroused in the west by the announcement that Calvin Demarest, a young and sensational player who has been steadily coming to the front, has become a member of the Chicago A. A., and with C. Fred Conklin, the present holder of the championship, the club will have two candidates for championship honors. The withdrawal of H. A. Wright of San Francisco and J. Ferdinand Poggen-burg of New York last year robbed the event of interest, which this year promises to be the most important ever held. With the above named as contestants, together with Gardiner, Norris, Stark and Sigourney, the contest this year should have as much interest as in the old days, when Mulien and Foss were entered.

Fencing in the Colleges. Special Dispatch to The Star.

PHILADELPHIA, January 22.-In spite of the split in fencing which divided the colleges into the Intercollegiate Fencing eague and the University Fencing Asso-League and the University Fencing Association, they have decided to meet in dual competition as follows: February 3, Pennsylvania against West Point at West Point; 10, Harvard against Boston Technology at Boston; Yale against West Point at West Point; 13, Pennsylvania against Annapolis at Annapolis; 16, triangular meet, Harvard, Columbia and Boston Technology at Boston; 17, West Point against Princeton at West Point; 22, Columbia against Pennsylvania at Philadelphia; Harvard against Cornell at Ithaca; 26, Harvard against

CABLE CHESS MATCH AMONG

THE UNIVERSITIES

Special Dispatch to The Star.

NEW YORK, January 22.-Oxford and Cambridge holders of the Isaac L. Rice international intercollegiate chess trophy have been challenged by the Triangular College Chess League, of which Brown, Corne'l and the University of Pennsylvania are members, to a match of six boards, on two consecutive Saturdays in March.

Hitherto a team representing Columbia, Harvard, Yale and Princeton has figured in these matches, but, no challenge having been issued by the "big four" of the college chess world, owing to inability to secure the Atlantic cables for such a purpose, the tri-angular colleges have stepped in, and will now try to wrest the trophy from the Eng-lishmen, provided the latter are willing to adjourn the games from one week's end to another. If this is agreed to, the Tri-angular League can obtain the use of a able for the match.

It seams that, owing to the heavy pres-sure of business, Friday can no longer be utilized, as heretofore. The American play-ers have expressed willingness to start the games as early as 8 a.m. on the first day, so as to advance the play as much as possible before an adjournment is necessary.

GRAVE CHARGES MADE.

College Representative Said to Have Tried to Hire Athletes.

Special Dispatch to The Star. PORTLAND, Ore., January 22.-It is now snown that Whitman is the Washington college president W. N. Ferrin of Pacific University referred to recently in his graft charges against athletics in the Pacific northwest. Instead of any denial of the allegation from Whitman College there came additional charges from other sources of actions not quite up to the reputedly high standards of athletics among the colleges. Spokane sporting enthusiasts recount certain offers made to athletes from that section by a representative of the Walla Walla College. The supposed representative had a sort of scholarship fund at his disposal, by which a number of men could receive $100, paid in room rent and tuition at Walla Walla. There were no examinations to be passed and no certificate of good scholarship was expected. Ex-Coach Herbold of the University of Idaho said that Whitman College had been sorely "in the hole" for several years, and that the athletic leaders in the college offers were made to boys who could brighten the athletic future of Whitman College. Preparing for Meeting of Ski Jumpers at Ishpeming. pecial Dispatch to The Star.

ISHPEMING, Mich., January 22. - A great throng of ski jumpers, some of whom will come from Scandinavia especially for the event, and many hundreds of spectators are James West, Monte Wood, John Townseld, Harry A. Eels, Ralph Cadwallader.

Infielders—Napoleon Lajoie, William J. Bradley, T. L. Turner, George Stovall, Claud Rossman, W. J. Barbeau, H. Bateman, William Shipke, A. J. Ingerton.

The slide on which the ski jumping will take place is being improved at great cost. The ledge of rocks which was discovered last winter at the foot of the trestle work leading into the valley of the steep hill is being blasted away, so as not to hinder the flight of the riders. The slight curve at the lower end of the course is being straightened and a retaining wall is being built. With these improvements it is ex-pected that last year's record will be broken by many feet, bringing the jumps above the 100 foot mark. There is danger of course in connection with ski jumping but as yet no accidents have ever marred the pleasure of an Ishpeming meet. Usually thousands of people throng the hillside to watch the skiers the perilous flight.

NEW YORK'S BIG BENCH SHOW. All Similar Exhibitions Will Be Sur-

Special Dispatch to The Star. NEW YORK, January 22 .- There is every indication that the thirtieth annual dog show of the Westminster Kennel Club, which will be held in Madison Square Garden on February 12 to 15, will surpass in size and comprehensiveness all similar preceding exhibitions. The management is hard at work preparing to make it a success. Lists of premiums and classes of entries are being sent broadcast, so that there will be no excuse for any kennel club or interested individual to plead ignorance of the many inducements offered. It is confidently expected that the 2.800 entry mark of last year will have been obliterated when the entries for this year are in on Janu-

Those who visit the exhibition next month will be able to see every conceivable kind of dog, from the diminutive skye terrier to the massive St. Bernard, and the animals be brought from every part of the United States, Canada and England The lines along which the show can most logically expand is in the matter of prizes.

Although it would seem that enough awards are given, the Westminster club this year nnounces two more.

Harry T. Peters offers a cup for the best (five couples) of foxhounds, England and American hounds only to be considered. The pack is to be judged for the purpose for which kept, namely, catching the wild fox. The judges for this special prize will comprise the judge of the English pack and the judge of the American pack, who will select a third.

The Westminster club offers $150, or plate of that value, for the very best pack of English foxhounds (five couples), the property of a recognized hunt club, to be shown by the M. F. H. and huntsman or by the M. F. H. and whip or huntsman and whip, in hunting costume. Judging in this entry will take place on Thursday afternoon, February 15. In addition the club has opened the Russian wolfhound class to dogs bred in Canada as well as in the United

The dogs this year will be judged solely by American judges. Heretofore this task has been performed by Englishmen. Superin-tendent James Mortimer said the American expert has now become the equal of those abroad and are perfectly competent to make the decisions at the coming shows. He feels that the judges should hereafter be chosen alternately from England and from America.

HARVARD'S TRACK MEN. Hopes Entertained of Defeating Yale in the Two-Mile Relay.

pecial Disputch to The Star. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., January 22 .- The Harvard track team is training for the indoor athletic carnival of the Boston Athletic Association, to be held Saturday evening. February 10. It is the only meet of any consequence scheduled in Boston this winter, and Harvard will enter more than 200 men in the several events. Capt. Dives expects to send on some of his crack performers to the big New York meets in Feb-strings Harvard will buck up against Yale in the hope of defeating the Elis in this event, which has gone two years running to the New Haven boys. Harvard has a strong team this season and looks for a victory, although Yale has four crack middle-distance pluggers to uphold her honor.

FOOT BALL THE THEME.

Discussed at Annual Dinner of Harvard Club of Philadelphia.

Foot ball was the theme of the speakers at the annual dinner of the Harvard Club of Philadelphia in that city Saturday night. Two hundred and fifty guests were present and addresses were made by Dr. H. H. Furness, president of the club; Prof. A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard University, Every J. Wendell, New York; M. D. Foliansbee, Chicago, and Arthur A. Balentine, Cambridge, Mass. Prof. Lowell, during the course of his speech, said:

"The recent order issued by our esteemed president abolishing the game of foot ball was not intended to be carried out to the letter, but rather to serve as a warning to the students that they should be more careful in future games.

"While a feeling of rivalry must exist to bring out the best ability of every player, there is no reason for brutality, which has marked many games played upon the athletic fields of the large educational institutions." tions. Let the players remember that they are friends and obviate the objectionable features. If they do this Harvard will con-tinue to foster the game and be one of its patrons. Otherwise, it must eventually be abolished from the list of games played

The Great Road Race in Cuba. Special Dispatch to The Star.

HAVANA, January 22.-That the 216mile road race in Cuba will be of great interest seems certain, for many of the greatest drivers of America and Europe are practically assured competitors. There will be Hemery, winner of the Vanderbilt race, and Lancia in a Flat. Lancia is the man who was leading in the Vanderbilt race when accidents destroyed his chances. Then there will be, in all probability, George Heath, Joe Tracy, Sziez, M. G. Bernis, Emanuel Cedrino, Charles Meyers, Clifford Earp, Foxhall Keene, S. M. Edge, Jenatey, ess and others.

New Zealand Team Sailed.

The American line steamer New York sailed from Southampton, England, Satur day having on board the New Zealand foot ball team, who were accorded a great send-off. It is said that they will probably play an exhibition game at New York against an all-Canadian team and another at San Francisco against the Vancouve

HARVARD GRADUATE CLUBS. Plans for a Vast Federation Are Now

Under Way Special Dispatch to The Star. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., January 22.-President Elfot and the alumni directors of Harvard are working out the details of plans for a vast federation of Harvard graduate clubs, which will honeycomb the United States and have branches wherever there are several Harvard graduates resident. It will be a complete organization of Harvard graduate clubs, all working toward the common good of the university and having a central office in the city. A committee, consisting of A. J. Garceau '91; Stephen Chase, '86, and H. M. Williams 85, is in charge of the plans for this fed eration and the establishment of a central office here, which will keep in close touch with all the Harvard clubs of the country and, as far as possible, increase the scope of their activities The number of directors in the alumni as-sociation will be increased and branch of-fices are to be established in the various cities as headquarters for the Har

FISCAL OFFICERS INVITED. Conference Called by the Census Bureau.

The bureau of census has called a conference of comptrollers, auditors, treasur

ers and other interested in the uniform classification of municipal accounts and comparable municipal statistics. This conference will be held in this city February 13 and 14. The invitations are limited to flical officers of cities of 30,000 inhabitants and over, because the law limits the annucl collection of financial statements to cities of that size. The fiscal officers of smaller places, however, and all others interested in the subject will be welcome. Among those who will deliver addresses are Secretary Metcalf, Department of Commerce and Labor; S. N. D. North, director of census; Dr. Le Grand Powers, chief statistician, census bureau; L. E. McGan, Chicago, Ill.; Dr. Edward M. Hartwell, Boston, Mass.; Joseph T. Tracy of the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices, Columbus, Ohio, and Dr. Frederick A. LIEUT. HOUSTON REPRIMANDED Was in Command of the Worden During a Collision. Rear Admiral Evans, commanding the Atlantic fleet, has reprimanded Lieut, Victor S. Houston, who was in command of the torpedo boat destroyer Worden when that vessel collided with the torpedo boat destroyer Lawrence near Pine Beach, Va., on the 6th instant. Lieut. Houston was convicted by a court-martial of inefficiency in the performance of duty and sentenced to be reprimanded.

"It appears from the testimony," says Admiral Evans in reviewing the case, "that Lieut. Victor S. Houston, commanding the Worden, standing for an anchorage in the vicinity of four other vessels of the flotilla, was not informed by signal, or otherwise, by the flotilla commander as to where the Worder should anchor, or that there had been any change in the disposition of the vessels of the flotilla since the early morning, when the Worden had departed.

'This omission of duty on the part of another does not, however, relieve Lieut. Houston of the responsibility of, on such an occasion, handling his vessel with great precaution and care; the night was fine, the wind was light, the moon was shining and it would not appear that the conditions were such as to produce a collision without there being culpable inefficiency and neglect Worden, standing for an anchorage in the

AMERICAN HOGS.

Effort to Prevent Their Importation

Into Canada. Commercial Agent James S. Benedict of Campbellton, New Brunswick, furnishes the following report regarding an order recently made to prevent the importation into that province of American hogs. He

"It appears that the order in council which was recently passed, prohibiting the importation of American hogs, has not as yet been put into operation, but suspended until such time as the minister of agriculture has listened to arguments and contentions of the Canadian packers and producers of hogs, and discussed the matter with them. It is said there were two reasons for excluding hogs from the United States. The first was that hog cholera in Canada has been traced to American hogs; and second, that the shipment of inferior hogs, which were mixed with Canadian, might reduce the standard of Canadian bacon in the Brit-

"The pork packers have met the minister of agriculture and presented their views of the situation. They claimed that they could not keep their establishments running with-out importing from the United States, and that last month about half of the hogs used came from there. The minister has yet to meet the Canadian breeders of hogs, who seem to be of the opinion that the packers could procure all the hogs in Canada for their requirements if willing to pay a trifle more for them. For the present the min-ister is likely to permit the importation of American hogs in bond to be taken to the slaughterhouses. The bacon from these hogs, if intended for exportation, must be branded on each side as American bacon. By this method, it is thought, Canadian ba-con will not suffer in Britain."

Manufactures of Louisville. A bulletin has been issued by the census bureau showing that there were 844 manufacturing establishments in Louisville last year, representing capital of $79.963 733, and employing 3,120 salaried officials and clerks receiving salaries amounting to $3,362,017, and 24,864 wage-earners receiving wages amounting to $10,741,529. The miscellaneous expenses were $12,272,141. The cost of materials used was $45,651,271, and the value of the output, including custom work and repairing, was $83,102,513. All of these figures are increases over those of five years ago, with the exception of the number of establishments, which have de-creased, due to a decrease in the number of small establishments or to the inclusion of a few small establishments in 1900 that were omitted in 1905 because they do not were omitted in 1905 because t form a part of a factory census.

Facts as Reported Communicated to Minister Quesada. Secretary Root has received from the Secretary of the Treasury a report submitted by the collector of customs at Key West, Fla., upon the facts connected with the forcible deportation from that place a few days ago of some striking Cuban cigar makers, which led to the filing of a vigorous protest here by the Cuban minister, Senor Quesada. In brief, the collector's report is to the effect that about twenty of the strike leaders were actually deported and among hem were perhaps four Cubans, but it is stated positively that these men left Key West of their own accord and without compulsion in any form. Secretary Root has communicated these facts to Senor Quesada and it is believed
